Code of Conduct Guidelines

The Edgewood Summer Day Camp staff is looking forward to providing every child with a fun, memorable, and safe summer camp experience. Each camper has a responsibility to act in a way that assures a positive experience for all. All campers are required to follow these guidelines.

Behavior Guidelines

Campers shall be responsible for their words and actions.
Campers shall be respectful of others.
Campers shall follow directions from staff members.
Campers shall leave all electronic devices at home. (A parent/guardian must seek permission from the camp director for the camper to be able to carry a cell phone for emergencies).

Prohibited Behaviors

Endangering the health and safety of themselves, other campers, and/or staff or volunteers.
Stealing, damaging, or failing to care for the facility or personal property.
Continual disruption of the program.
Refusal to follow the behavior guidelines.
Inappropriate physical contact.
Using profanity or inappropriate language or displaying clothing or other personal items with offensive content.
Bullying or acts of aggression or violence.
Possession or use of illegal substances, tobacco, or alcohol.

Possession of weapons - any object that may cause harm to another, or place another person in fear of his/her safety, may be considered a weapon.

Failure to comply with the Code of Conduct may result in the removal from the program and/or additional fees. There will be no refunds given for campers who are removed from the program due to violations of the Code of Conduct.

Cancellation Policy

If a Parent wishes to cancel a week of camp, they may do so with 7 days or 168 hours' notice from 9:00am the Monday of the desired week to receive a full refund. If there is less than 7 days' notice, then a refund will not be granted.

Health Policy

If a child is ill they may not be in camp. If a child becomes ill during camp hours a call will be made to the parents and arrangements will be made to have the child picked up. We define illness according to the "YMCA Youth Day Camp Policy" including but not limited to ...

- "Communicable Disease
- Persistent Vomiting within 24 hours
- Diarrhea
- Persistent runny nose and/or Cough
- A contagious or undiagnosed rash
- A temperature of 100 degrees Fahrenheit or higher
- Upper respiratory infection"

Failure to comply with the Code of Conduct may result in the removal from the program and/or additional fees. There will be no refunds given for campers who are removed from the program due to violations of the Code of Conduct.

Injury, First Aid, Illness, and Medication Administration and Special Needs

Most of our staff is first aid and CPR certified and responsible for the immediate, on-site administration of basic first aid and/or CPR for any injuries occurring at camp. If the injury or illness is beyond common occurrence injuries (scraped knees, bumps, bruises, overheating) and proves to be a more serious condition (head injuries, sprains/breaks, heat exhaustion, severe allergic reaction, heart injury), we will contact parents or guardians and any necessary emergency medical services immediately if necessary. We will treat to the best of our abilities on site as well. In the event of such an emergency, the camp staff will first attempt to contact the child's parents/guardians. If unsuccessful, we will continue to try emergency contacts until we can reach someone. Please inform your Emergency Contacts of their responsibilities and be sure that they are readily available to receive and respond to such a call. If your child is sick, please keep him/her home. Please report any communicable diseases promptly, i.e. Chicken Pox, Head Lice, Pink Eye, etc., to the director of your camp. Refunds or credits are not given for missed camp days. If your child becomes sick during the camp day, a parent/guardian will be contacted immediately and asked to pick up the camper as soon as possible. If sent home with a fever, a camper will not be allowed to be signed in the following day. If sent home with a communicable disease, a camper will not be allowed to be signed in without a doctor's note stating that he/she is no longer contagious.

If your child does require medication while at camp, you will need to obtain a Medical Authorization from the child's physician.

If your child has a special need or sensitivity, please explain so that we can ensure that need is addressed and they can have the best experience:
